BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)
FINANCES
EXTREMIST MATTERS

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 10/20/71.

During October, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., continued to operate principally from their present headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. The residence of RUSSELL and MARY MC DONALD, 1306-A Underwood Ave., is also utilized by BPP leaders. RUSSELL MC DONALD is the distributor of the BPP newspaper in North Carolina, and his wife MARY is very active at BPP Headquarters where she heads the Free Breakfast for Children Program and solicits contributions from the business community. The BPP Headquarters has been without telephone service since members have failed to raise the necessary deposit for the telephone company.

RAYMOND DONNELL LITTLE, Head of the BPP Chapter is forced to rely on receiving telephone calls at the residence of his mother OCHIE BELL LITTLE, 1326 Oak St., Winston-Salem, N. C.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During October, 1971, the group ordered an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP Newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name of RUSSELL MC DONALD, _____ sources report the group continued to operate on a cash basis and through the use of bank money orders. The BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., contacted several black colleges in North Carolina attempting to arrange speaking engagements for BPP Chairman BOBBY SEALE in an effort to raise funds for the BPP. As a result of these efforts, arrangements were made for SEALE to speak at the Winston-Salem State University on 11/14/71, and at Saint Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C., 11/15/71. The sources report the Winston-Salem Chapter of the BPP expected to receive $900 from the fees being paid SEALE for his speeches, however, this amount was not confirmed. It is noted that the speaking arrangements for SEALE called for him to receive $1500 for his appearance at Winston-Salem State University which was to be payable by check, Stronghold Productions Company, and $1,000 for his speech at Saint Augustine's to be paid by check made payable to Stronghold Productions Company. In addition, LARRY LITTLE received a commitment from the student government officers at the School of Performing Arts, Winston-Salem, N. C., that they would donate $500 to cover SEALE'S travel expense for the speaking engagement. The BPP Chapter continues to solicit food from local merchants to support the Free Breakfast for Children Program, however, sources continue to report the BPP members themselves have been eating most of the food donated leaving very little if any for the children.

None. It is noted, however, that the BPP Chapter held an open house at their Patterson Headquarters on 10/24/71, where LARRY LITTLE spoke before the small number of guests that showed up. The open house was held in an effort to gain support from the local community. No formal speeches, however, were made by BPP members during October, 1971.

ARRESTS AND CONVICTIONS

None.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that a Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

A Detroit source had advised that the BPP Cleaver Faction underground has moved to an undiscovered North Carolina location. Contacts with extremist sources have not substantiated this allegation.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program which began on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Avenue, continues to feed approximately eight (8) to ten (10) children each day. This program is headed by MARY MC DONALD wife of RUSSELL MC DONALD. Mrs. MC DONALD is assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers. The Program is in continuous difficulty, however, as the BPP members have been eating most of the food donated for the program leaving very little for the children. BPP members have continued their efforts to raise bond money for the members of the so called "High Point Four" who are being held in jail awaiting trial. On 10/19/71, RUDOLPH JENNINGS, one of the "High Point Four", was released on a property bond signed by THOMAS WHITLEY of Tarboro, N. C. WHITLEY actually signed the property bond on 10/15/71, however, JENNINGS was not released until a proper validation of the value and ownership of the property could be made. MARY MC DONALD led a contingent of BPP members from Winston-Salem to Greensboro, N. C., and contacted Sheriff PAUL GIBSON, Guilford County Sheriff's Office, demanding JENNINGS be immediately released. Sheriff GIBSON declined to do so until the property bond was cleared through the Clerk of Court's Office. MARY MC DONALD thereafter called a press conference accusing local authorities of illegally holding JENNINGS after his bond had been posted. The remaining two members of the "High Point Four" are still in jail and BPP members have been unsuccessful to date in raising sufficient money to bond out the other two. This Group continues to follow their new peaceful image of community service and there has been no confrontation by the BPP and Police during the past month.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that a Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The Free Breakfast for Children Program started on 9/6/71, at BPP Headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Ave. Approximately ten (10) children each day are being fed under this program which is being spearheaded by MARY McDONALD, assisted by several neighborhood women volunteers.

The major activities of the BPP group at Winston-Salem, N. C., centered around the trial of LARRY LITTLE, JULIUS CORNELL, and GRADY FULLER which began in Forsyth County Superior Court, Winston-Salem, N. C., on 9/20/71. The BPP members were represented by three American Civil Liberties Union attorneys who subpoenaed the Forsyth County Sheriff, the Chief of Police of the Winston-Salem Police Department, the Forsyth County Solicitor, and Resident Agent DAVID B. MARTIN as defense witnesses. The three defendants were being tried for charges stemming from the theft of a meat truck in Winston-Salem, N. C., which was found parked in front of what was then BPP Headquarters during January, 1971. When police attempted to search the BPP Headquarters, a shootout ensued resulting in assault and theft charges being filed against the three BPP members. Defense attorneys filed numerous pre-trial motions, including a motion to quash the indictments because the Forsyth County jury list did not contain 18-year olds and did not contain sufficient percentage of blacks. After one full week of hearings, Superior Court Judge JAMES M. LONG ruled in favor of the defense and quashed the indictments against all three defendants. The Superior Court Solicitor for Winston-Salem, N. C., has advised he is filing an appeal of Judge JAMES M. LONG's ruling in view of the numerous problems in reconstituting a jury selection system of Forsyth County.

BPP members have continued their efforts to raise bond money for the remaining three of the "High Point Four" who are still in jail in lieu of bond. They have been unsuccessful to date in raising sufficient money to bond out anyone of the other three.

There was very little activity at BPP Headquarters, Winston-Salem, N. C., during September, 1971, however, the leaders were tied up in pre-trial conferences with their attorneys and their court appearances. It is noted that the BPP members who appeared in the courtroom during the above trial were very well-dressed and well-behaved, apparently in carrying out their new peaceful image. There has been no confrontation by the BPP and police during the past month.

Re Charlotte airtel to Bureau dated 9/21/71.

During September, 1971, the Black Panther Party (BPP) Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., operated principally from their new headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Avenue. An apartment located at 1306-A Underwood Ave., the residence of RUSSELL and MARY McDONALD, is also utilized by BPP leaders. RUSSELL McDONALD is the Distributor of the BPP newspaper in North Carolina and his wife, MARY McDONALD, works at BPP headquarters, 1333 North Patterson Ave., where she handles the Free Breakfast for Children Program. The BPP was able to have a telephone installed at the Patterson Avenue address, however, the telephone company refused to hook up the telephone when BPP members failed to make the required deposit with the telephone company. LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter, continues to receive telephone calls at 1306-A Underwood Ave. and at the residence of his mother, OCHIE BELL LITTLE, 1326 Oak St., Winston-Salem, N. C.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During September, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP Newspaper which were delivered via air freight in the name RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. RUSSELL McDONALD, however, was engaged in activities at Ayden, N. C., for most of this period and the newspapers were handled by a young new member, DARRELL HOPKINS. Sources report McDONALD's absence caused a backlog of unsold BPP newspapers. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis. LARRY DONNELL LITTLE has been contacting black colleges in the area attempting to arrange speaking engagements for BPP Chairman BOBBY SEALE, in an effort to raise funds for the BPP. The student body government at Winston-Salem State College, a predominantly Negro school, has expressed a willingness to have SEALE appear; however, no agreement has been reached to date and LITTLE has apparently been unsuccessful in getting a commitment from SEALE to speak in North Carolina. The BPP Chapter at Winston-Salem, N. C., has approached white merchants doing business in the black neighborhoods to donate money for the Free Breakfast for Children Program. They have been unsuccessful in obtaining any regular cash donations. However, several of the merchants, including the Merita Bakery which is located in a black neighborhood, have donated food. Sources report that the BPP members themselves have been eating the food leaving very little for the children. Accordingly, approximately eight children are currently being fed under this program.

B. FOREIGN SOURCES

None reported.

The BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. is being purchased under a lease-purchase agreement with a monthly rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house. Sources have reported that LARRY LITTLE and RUSSELL McDONALD have been depleting the meager funds of the BPP Chapter for travel expenses in connection with their contacts at Negro colleges attempting to arrange speaking engagements for Chairman BOBBY SEALE. McDONALD spent several weeks in Ayden, N. C., during a period of racial strife and also travelled by bus to a number of North Carolina cities in an unsuccessful effort to recruit new BPP members.

D. OPERATIONS

LARRY DONNELL LITTLE continues as the overall leader with HAZEL MACK and HAVEN HENDERSON handling finances. [REDACTED] all financial transactions are reported to be handled in cash or by money order.

RUSSELL McDONALD is distributor of the BPP newspaper in North Carolina, and his wife, MARY MC DONALD, works at the BPP Headquarters at 1333 N. Patterson Ave., where a Free Breakfast for Children Program is being organized for the forthcoming school year. BPP members at Winston-Salem have solicited contributions of paint and other building materials which have been utilized in fixing up their new Patterson Avenue Headquarters. The new headquarters has been painted a bright blue and a large sign has been erected in the front yard identifying this residence as the headquarters of the N. C. Chapter of the BPP. The BPP has also been successful in getting a telephone installed at the Patterson Ave. address; however, LARRY DONNELL LITTLE, head of the BPP chapter, continues to receive telephone calls at the residence of his mother, OCHIE LITTLE, 1326 Oak Street.

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During August, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper which were delivered in the name RUSSELL McDONALD, Distribution Manager. This appears to be the major source of income. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] during August, 1971; however, sources report the group continues to operate on a cash basis or through the utilization of money orders. LARRY DONNELL LITTLE announced that the group had been successful in raising approximately $600 to date in contributions mainly through their efforts to arrange bail for the High Point Four. The High Point Four are four young BPP members who were arrested by the High Point Police Department following a shoot-out wherein one High Point Police Officer was wounded. The BPP was successful in arranging for bond for the youngest member of the High Point Four, LARRY MEDLEY, by posting a $4,000 cash bond. On 8/27/71, [REDACTED] that he had determined the $4,000 check used to post bond for MEDLEY was signed by the American Civil Liberties Union Attorney NEIL HIRSCHBURY of Chapel Hill, N. C. This cash bond was received from an anonymous donor with the agreement that the BPP would reimburse the donor following completion of prosecution.

B. FOREIGN SOURCES

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP, in addition to an estimated $20 per week air freight charge. As of 9/1/71, [REDACTED]

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 9/18/71

Attached relates that last night (9/17/71) SA David B. Martin, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Resident Agency, was subpoenaed by the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office to appear in local superior court, Winston-Salem, at 9:30 am, 9/20/71 (Monday), as defense witness for local BPP leaders. Defendants to be tried concerning charges of theft of meat truck which ended with shoot-out with Winston-Salem police. Testimony desired of SA Martin is unknown since he was only an observer to exchange of gunfire. Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) Cameron stated he would contact U.S. Attorney, Middle District of North Carolina, and consider requiring cause for testimony prior to SA Martin's appearance. Defense attorney in case is believed engaging in delaying tactics and/or attempting to "try the system" and has subpoenaed other local police authorities as witnesses for the defense.

In view of above, Charlotte is being instructed to advise AUSA Cameron that Bureau feels cause for testimony should be required. This action has been coordinated with Office of Legal Counsel.

FACTIONALISM

During August, 1971, no information was received other than that ~~the~~ Winston-Salem, N. C., group continues to follow HUEY P. NEWTON.

PART II

The following is a summary of the BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The major activities of the BPP group at Winston-Salem, N. C., and their affiliated group at High Point, N. C., appear to be their concern of various charges against the BPP leadership whose cases have not gone to trial. In addition, both groups have been working diligently in an effort to raise bond money for the "High Point Four", and to use their forthcoming trial as a rallying point to gain public support. BPP members were successful in raising bond money for one of the "High Point Four"; however, they have been unsuccessful in raising sufficient money to bond out any of the other three who are still awaiting trial.

BPP members at Winston-Salem have continued their work in fixing up their new headquarters which has been painted a bright blue. A large hand-painted sign has been erected in the front yard identifying this residence as the headquartera of the North Carolina Chapter of the BPP. There has been no confrontation between the BPP and police and the group appears to be actively promoting their newly adopted "community image", and have been sprucing-up their personal dress as well as the appearance of their headquarters.

Re San Francisco airtel to Bureau, 7/27/71.

The San Francisco airtel sets forth information from [REDACTED] a highly confidential source, reflecting that [REDACTED] had received papers regarding some property owned by HAZEL RAMIREZ (phonetic) in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Referenced airtel suggested that HAZEL RAMIREZ may be affiliated with the BPP in Winston-Salem, N. C., and connected with some property in Winston-Salem. It was also suggested that the papers relating to this property had been forwarded to BPP National Headquarters at Oakland, California, for possible transfer of ownership to Stronghold Consolidated Productions, Inc. Investigation at Winston-Salem, N. C., has not identified an individual named HAZEL RAMIREZ connected with the BPP in Winston-Salem, N. C. It is suggested, however, that the information from [REDACTED] pertains to the new BPP Headquarters at Winston-Salem, N. C., located at 1333 Patterson Ave. This house was purchased under a lease purchase agreement with a $500 cash down payment and monthly rental of $100 per month to be applied toward the purchase price of the house at the option of the buyer. This property was acquired in the name of HAZEL MACK and LEE FAYE MACK, however, they do not reside at the Patterson address.

The BPP held an open house on Sunday, 8/22/71, and announced that their new eight room headquarters was purchased from CLYDE W. MYERS, [REDACTED]

The new BPP Headquarters has been set up in a two-story residence at 1333 North Patterson Ave., in Winston-Salem, N. The house was purchased with a $500 down payment and monthly rent of $100 per month to be applied to the purchase price of the house at the end of sixty months. The total purchase price for the house was $8,500. BPP members have been observed fixing up the house, painting, and making minor repairs. Members have discussed placing metal screens over the windows and sandbags inside the house, however, this has not been done to date. There has been no confrontation between the BPP and police and the group appears to be following their new adopted image for community service.

Contact has been maintained with Charlotte sources; however, no information has been received to date that a taped message from HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense, has been utilized in any public appearance in North Carolina. A rally called the "Solidarity Rally for the High Point Four" was held on 7/25/71, in High Point, N. C. LARRY LITTLE made a press release prior to this rally in which he predicted 2,000 persons would attend this rally whose purpose was to obtain moral and financial support for the four young Blacks who were awaiting trial following their arrests at BPP Headquarters in High Point, N. C., where a policeman was seriously wounded. Approximately 200 people were in attendance at the rally, and LARRY LITTLE made the welcoming address; however, no comment was made regarding a message from NEWTON. Due to motions by Defense Attorneys, a definite trial date has not been fixed for the "High Point Four". Charlotte sources will be alerted for the utilization of any statement by NEWTON in behalf of the "High Point Four".

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

During July, 1971, the group ordered or received an estimated 10,000 copies of the BPP newspaper, sales of which were under the direction of RUSSELL McDONALD. This appears to be the major source of income. [REDACTED] was not active during July, 1971, and there were no large donations noted. The BPP sponsored a solidarity rally for the High Point Four at a public park in High Point, N. C., on 7/25/71. The announced intent was to gain moral and financial support for the High Point Four who are four young blacks who were arrested at BPP Headquarters following a shoot-out when the High Point police evicted them. Approximately 200 people attended the rally and donations were nominal.

B. FOREIGN SOURCES

None reported.

C. EXPENSES

Half the price of the newspapers or $875 would be owed to the California Headquarters of the BPP, in addition to an estimated $70 per week air freight charge. As of 7/31/71, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] 1306-A Underwood Avenue, one of the current pads used by the BPP.

The new BPP Headquarters at 1333 North Patterson Ave. was purchased under a lease purchase agreement with a $500 down payment and monthly rental of $100 per month to be applied to the purchase price of the house.

The Winston-Salem group has requested permission from the California Headquarters to retain some of the money received from the sale of BPP newspapers to be used in making payments

Chapter at Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

[REDACTED] wanted to know why he had not received any information about the mule, and [REDACTED] indicated he had been away and that RUSSELL (LNU) was dealing with that situation and was presently in Beaufort, South Carolina. [REDACTED] said that the man already had a mule, but he still needed other things to work with on the farm, and that RUSSELL was working on that situation and would buy him what he needed to start operating.

[REDACTED] wanted to know where the man got the mule, and [REDACTED] did not have that information at this time and was instructed by [REDACTED] to find out about it as there had been too much talk about the situation and someone else probably worked on it and got it for him through one of the poverty programs.

It would appear that this information relates to WALLACE PARNELL of Burton, South Carolina who was the subject of a story appearing in the BPP newspaper "The Black Panther" issue of 8/9/71, page five, regarding the death of his mule "DOLY", which had fallen into a septic tank and drowned slowly.

Apparently as a follow up to the story featured in the BPP newspaper, the Party has been endeavoring to assist PARNELL in Burton, South Carolina by supplying him with another mule, but someone else apparently beat the Party out in this endeavor, and [REDACTED] is upset about it.

Of additional interest, specifically to the Atlanta Office, source indicated that [REDACTED] also discussed an individual by the name of SAM with [REDACTED] (who is believed to be SAM GILLIAM of the Atlanta Chapter of the BPP). In this regard, [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] that SAM (GILLIAM) was in New York, and he said that SAM had been beaten in the head and was in a daze and was not talking since. [REDACTED] said he had informed the New York Chapter to have SAM checked right away by a doctor but had not received any information and intended to call ANDREW AUSTIN about this situation to learn SAM's condition. [REDACTED] made no additional comment regarding this information, and no subsequent information was received from source indicating further contact regarding GILLIAM by [REDACTED] with BPP National Headquarters in Oakland, California.

In connection with other activities of the Winston-Salem group at this time, [REDACTED] said that the bail was presently set at $14,000 for the group referred to as the High Point Four and the chapter was having difficulty in raising the money. He indicated that one woman (not identified) might take some money out of the bank for one of the four, however, they would have to pay this back plus the interest she would normally earn at six percent if her savings had been left in the bank, and he thought that this was possibly a good deal cheaper than obtaining funds in other manners (not specified).

[REDACTED] inquired of [REDACTED] about the brother that had been sent out from Winston-Salem (this presumably refers to GARY LILY of Winston-Salem, who arrived in the San Francisco area 8/7/71 to study community activity, shoemaking, and clothing manufacture). [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that this individual was working hard and was a good brother.

Columbia and Charlotte note the information pertaining to WALLACE PARNELL in view of possible additional publicity which may appear in the BPP newspaper or in local papers in South Carolina regarding assistance furnished to him by the BPP.

Atlanta and New York note the references to SAM GILLIAM. In this regard, New York is advised that SAM GILLIAM is a member of the BPP in Atlanta who apparently recently disappeared and has now turned up in New York and may presently be working with the BPP chapter there or at least in contact with ANDREW AUSTIN who has been requested to check on him.

SOLIDARITY RALLY FOR
HIGH POINT FOUR,
HIGH POINT, NORTH CAROLINA
JULY 25, 1971
RACIAL MATTERS - BLACK PANTHER PARTY

Reference is made to memorandum dated July 20, 1971, at Charlotte, North Carolina, regarding captioned matter.

The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

On July 24, 1971, an article appeared in the High Point Enterprise, High Point, North Carolina, a daily newspaper, announcing plans for captioned rally at 2:00 P.M., July 25, 1971, at Washington Terrace Park, noting LARRY LITTLE, a leader of the Winston Salem, North Carolina, chapter of the National Committee to Combat Fascism, predicted 2,000 persons would attend rally. Its purpose was to gain moral and financial support for the High Point Four, identified as LARRY MEDLEY, GEORGE
DE WITT, both age 16, RANDOLPH JENNINGS, age 17, and BRADFORD
LILLY, age 19, who were arrested February 10, 1971, at Black Panther Party Headquarters, 612 Hulda Street, High Point, North Carolina, after a shoot out with police, and they are in custody at Central Prison, Raleigh, North Carolina, awaiting trial in Superior Court, High Point, North Carolina.

HIGH POINT FOUR

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Speakers, according to LARRY LITTLE, would include GOLDEN FRINKS, Southern Christian Leadership Conference; BEN CHAVIS, North Carolina-Virginia Council for Racial Justice, as well as Attorneys JERRY PAUL and BUDDY TIEGER, who represented the High Point Four but who have been rejected by subjects since preliminary hearing.

CE T-1 advised that on July 25, 1971, the rally did not get under way until 3:45 P.M. on the pavilion of Washington Terrace Park with LARRY LITTLE welcoming the group which consisted of approximately 200 people, many of whom were the usual patrons who frequent the park on Sunday afternoons for picnicking and swimming. Thereafter, JULIUS CORNELL took over the microphone as master of ceremonies and introduced GOLDEN FRINKS as the first speaker.

GOLDEN FRINKS urged the blacks to fill up the local jail making the police feed them and turn loose chickens in the department stores in downtown area as propaganda and harassing tactics. He urged the blacks to visit white churches and not allow the ministers to preach until they assisted in raising bonds for the High Point Four.

BUDDY TIEGER did not appear; however, Attorney JERRY PAUL urged blacks to get on the jury in the up coming trial and vote "not guilty."

Thereafter, there followed a talk on solidarity for support of the imprisoned High Point Four by MARY MC DONALD of Winston Salem, North Carolina, and brief comments by GEORGE DE WITT.

On July 25, 1971, CE T-2 advised that among those at the rally from Winston Salem, North Carolina, were the MACK family, including CLARA, LEE FAYE, HAZEL, and RUTH, as well as NELSON MALLOY and MALIK.

CE T-2 reported that an unrecalled church in Greenville, North Carolina, brought a bus load to the rally and CE T-2 also observed 25 whites from Durham, North Carolina, wearing badges indicating they belonged to the "Peoples Treaty Organization."

A collection was taken for the defense fund, however, contributions were sparse and the rally fell short of the number expected and interest generated.

On July 25, 1971, CE T-1, CE T-2, and [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] High Point, North Carolina, Police Department, advised there were no incidents or arrests.

HIGH POINT FOUR,
HIGH POINT, NORTH CAROLINA
JULY 25, 1971
RACIAL MATTER - BLACK PANTHER PARTY

On July 19, 1971, CE T-1 advised that within the past few days a leaflet has been distributed at High Point, North Carolina, by unknown individuals, announcing a public rally at Washington Terrace Park at High Point, North Carolina, at two P. M., July 25, 1971, on behalf of "The High Point Four", who this source identified as individuals arrested February 10, 1971, after a shoot out on that date at Black Panther Party Headquarters, High Point, North Carolina.

On July 19, 1971, [REDACTED], North Carolina, advised that the rally reportedly is being arranged by JULIUS CORNELL, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on behalf of LARRY MEDLEY, RANDOLPH JENNINGS, BRADFORD LILLY, and GEORGE DE WITT, who are presently incarcerated and awaiting trial in Superior Court, High Point, North Carolina, during September, 1971, as a result of a shoot out at Black Panther Party Headquarters, High Point, North Carolina, February 10, 1971.

[REDACTED] added that CORNELL appears anxious to develop moral and financial support for these individuals in their upcoming trial.

On 5/4/71, the Firearms License Applications held in file by the Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms Agency in Winston-Salem were reviewed in an effort to locate handwriting similar to that appearing in the letter written by the prospective Firearms Editor. This developed no information and ATF Agent [REDACTED] advised he knew of no one in the Winston-Salem, N. C., area, he would consider a logical possibility in this matter.

On 6/8/71, all Pistol Permit Applications held by the Forsyth County SO for the last three years were reviewed in an effort to develop similar handwriting. This was negative.

On 5/4/71, [REDACTED] PD, who was knowledgeable in Negro racial and/or firearms matters in this area, were contacted concerning this matter. None could provide the name of anyone who could logically be the prospective Firearms Editor.

On 6/25/71, these same individuals were again contacted with negative results.

It has been noted the writer who aspired to be the anonymous Firearms Editor of the Black Panther Paper went to some lengths and planned to go further to hide his identity. In keeping with this effort to maintain his anonymity, it is logical to believe he may have traveled to the Winston-Salem area to post this letter.

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The major activities of the BPP group at Winston-Salem, N.C., appear to be their concern of various charges of the leadership all of which have been continued. The group is adopting community service attitude and a number of the members are attending first aid classes. There is very little street activity noted, however, they continue to receive and sell BPP newspapers.

No confrontation occurred between the BPP and police and they reportedly received instructions from HUEY P. NEWTON to the effect that their previous encounters with the police were the wrong course of action.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP), also known as
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to the official newspaper of the BPP, the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men, Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by the Minister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist U.S. government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is . . . by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces . . . are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U. S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION
POSSIBLE GUN LAW VIOLATIONS
RACIAL MATTERS

Re Director's airtel to SAC, Albany, 5/17/71, captioned "National Firearms Act, State Firearms Control Assistance Act, Unlawful Possession or Receipt of Firearms, Racial Matters".

Concerning the BPP within the Charlotte Division, it should be noted there is a chapter located at Winston Salem, N. C., with some activities of this chapter carried out at High Point, N. C.

Informants and other sources and law enforcement officers have reported the group in possession of approximately 12 rifles and shotguns, none of which are in violation of Federal Firearm Laws. No information has been developed that the group is in possession of explosives or has made other incendiary devices such as molotov cocktails for stockpiling.

Appropriate informants have been alerted to the Bureau's desire to receive information concerning possession of weapons by black extremists and this has been followed closely. In addition, during the development of background data concerning each BPP member, particular emphasis has been given to that phase pertaining to arrests and military service which could possibly place the individual in a category where ownership of weapons would be a violation.

There are currently no firearm law violations under investigation concerning the BPP, however, in the event information is received of a possible violation, investigation will be immediately instituted.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP), also known as
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to the official newspaper of the BPP, the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men, Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by the Minister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist U.S. government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is . . . by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces . . . are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U. S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

Factionalism

During April, the Winston-Salem group were lifted from status of a National Committee to Combat Fascism to a Black Panther Chapter and no information has been received other than the group is entirely loyal to the HUEY P. NEWTON faction of the BPP.

PART II

The following is a summary of BPP activities in the Charlotte Division:

The group in Winston-Salem was elevated to the status of a BPP chapter and continues to function, selling the BPP newspaper. Their main concern during April was with the trials of LARRY DONNELL LITTLE on contempt of court and carrying a concealed weapon charges which case has been remanded to federal court and continued. Other individuals such as JULIUS WHITE CORNELL, JR., GRADY FULLER, and NELSON LEE MALLOY, JR. were scheduled to come to trial; however, due to crowded docket, cases were not tried. CORNELL, GARY DARNELL LILLEY, and DELORIS WRIGHT were reported to be in Aiken, S. C., and Augusta, Ga., in connection with the upcoming trial of JAMES RAYMOND FORD, JR.

There is very little "on the street activity" such as selling newspapers, etc. observed and the group's main interest appears to be in their upcoming trials.
